DETAILED ACTIONDrawings

The drawings are objected to as failing to comply with 37 CFR 1.84(p)(5) because they include the following reference character(s) not mentioned in the description: element 228 in Fig. 6D. Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d), or amendment to the specification to add the reference character(s) in the description in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(b) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. Each drawing sheet submitted after the filing date of an application must be labeled in the top margin as either "Replacement Sheet" or "New Sheet" pursuant to 37 CFR 1.121(d). If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

The drawings are objected to as failing to comply with 37 CFR 1.84(p)(4) because reference :

a. character "14: has been used to designate both: "proximal single-lumen extension tubes 14" and "proximal venal extension tube 14" (page 11)

b. character "200" has been used to designate both: (a square box 200 in Fig. 6D) and sheath dilator.

Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. Each drawing sheet submitted after the filing date of an application must be labeled in the top margin as either "Replacement Sheet" or "New Sheet" pursuant to 37 CFR 1.121(d). If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

Claims 32-60 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Schon (US 6,682,519).

Schon discloses a multi-lumen catheter comprising: a multi-lumen tube 11 includes a first catheter 16 with a lumen 24, second catheter with lumen 30; a distal portion comprising a plurality of distal single-lumen; a proximal portion comprising a plurality of single lumen tubes (see Fig. 5); a plurality of extension member (connected to the connector 66); a connector 66 adapted to receive and hold the distal ends of the distal single-lumen tubes; the connectors 66 further comprise means for attaching the connector to a trocar (col. 11, lines 2-15); a mating compress fitting (col. 11, lines 50-61); the material of catheter comprised of a fusible material (col. 7, lines 20+); a stabilizing cuff 14.

Claims 32-60 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Schweikert et al. (US 6,719,749).

Schweikert discloses a multi-lumen catheter comprising a multi-tube portion 20; a distal portion (located element 11, 12) comprising a plurality of distal single-lumen tubes (Fig. 1; a proximal portion (where is close to portion of element 36) comprising a plurality of single-lumen tubes (Figs. 1 or 7A-8B); plurality of extension members 38, 39; a connector 50 or 58; the connector further comprises means for attaching the connector to a trocar (col. 15, lines 4-44); the single-lumen tubes comprised of a fusible material (col. 9, line 36-col. 10, line16); a stabilizing cuff 44; each extension member 38, 39 comprises a matting compression fitting and a tube portion (Fig. 1, col. 8, lin62, col. 9, line 25).

Double Patenting

The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. A nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting rejection is appropriate where the conflicting claims are not identical, but at least one examined application claim is not patentably distinct from the reference claim(s) because the examined application claim is either anticipated by, or would have been obvious over, the reference claim(s). See, e.g., In re Berg, 140 F.3d 1428, 46 USPQ2d 1226 (Fed. Cir. 1998); In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) or 1.321(d) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent either is shown to be commonly owned with this application, or claims an invention made as a result of activities undertaken within the scope of a joint research agreement.

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

Claims 32-60 are rejected on the ground of nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1-13 of U.S. Patent Nos. 7,300,430 and over claims 1-11 of U.S. Pub. Nos. 2002/0099326.

Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because they device of instant claims are fully disclosed and covered by the claims in the patents.
